OFFICE OF THE LIBRARIAN

December 28, 1906.

Dear Sir:

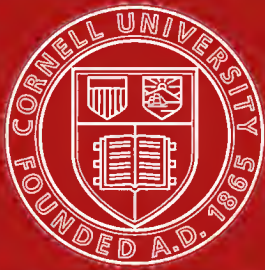

The Library of Congress has of late received a number of applications for <sup>its</sup> bibliographic lists on "Immigration."* We understand that there is soon to be an inter-collegiate debate between Cornell, Columbia, and Pennsylvania Universities on this subject. From our records we find that, when the Library of Congress issued these lists in 1904, a copy of each was sent to you. Since that date, the edition of the first named below has become exhausted. We are sending you now an additional copy of the list on "Chinese Immigration", as you may find more than one copy of use to the students at this time. Should anyone desire a list for his personal use, he may obtain it in the usual way from the Superintendent of Documents, the listed price being $.10.

Very truly yours,

Librarian of Congress.

INTRODUCTION.

---

This is one of a number of lists upon topics of current interest compiled to meet requests by letter. So far as it could be distributed at all it has hitherto been distributed in typewritten form. The applications have become so numerous that it has now been reduced to print, so as to be available for more general distribution.

It has no claim to completeness, nor does it even attempt to exhaust the resources of this Library on the subject. Its purpose is merely to present some of the authorities of interest to the general inquirer. The special investigator must, of course, go much further.
